Ms. Reed was reminded that the meeting was public and she replied that it was fine. She expressed concerns regarding an arrest that occurred in February 2023. Shyann Parker came into the meeting at 4:05 p.m. to express her same concerns and to follow up on a letter she had sent earlier that day to the board of selectmen. Chairman Chandler reminded Ms. Parker that the meeting was public and told them that the letter was just received and read briefly. Selectman Munro had not been able to read the letter yet. The selectmen listened to the concerns expressed by Ms. Reed and Ms. Parker and will reach out to Police Chief Keaton. After hearing from Chief Keaton they will respond to each of them.

Chairman Chandler asked if everyone supported requiring a payment up front as part of approving the event permit.
